PROPOSED SOLUTION:

- For this problem statement, we provide a web based solution named "UPSTAMP".
- Any interested person can Login/Sign Up in our application.
- Efficient filter options are available to sort out the required stamp.
- Customized chat window between buyer and seller.
- 24x7 Chatbot support for our app.
- Buyer can post unavailable stamp in "Wanted Section" to increase the chance of finding rare stamp.
- Based on buyer interest, stamp recommend automatically.

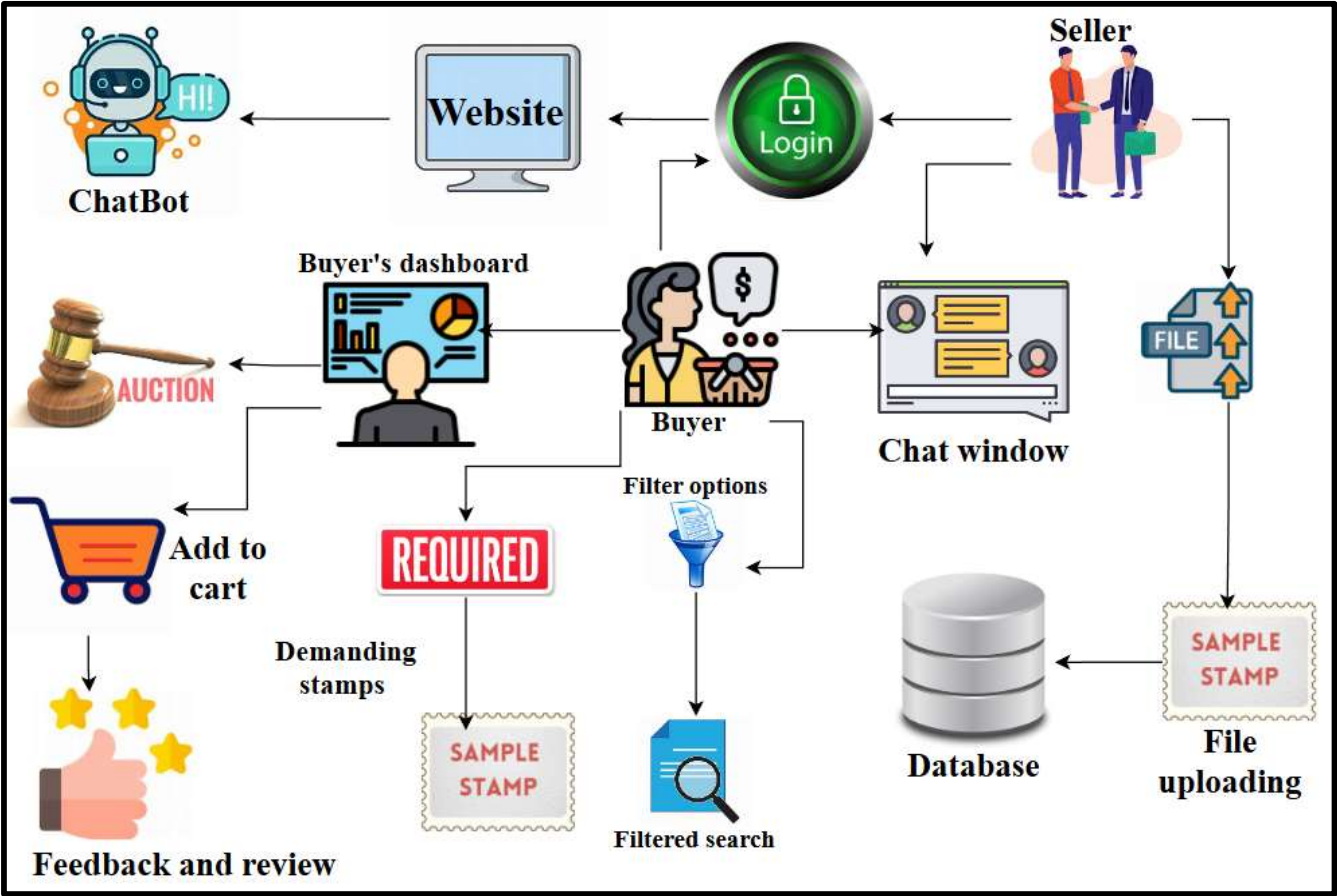

Seller side

- When posting a stamp on the website, the seller sets its details, such as name, description, count, published year, country of origin, and price.
- Sellers can track the performance of their listings with detailed analytics on views, purchases, and user interactions, helping them optimize their sales strategy.

Buyer side

- Buyers can add products to wish lists for specific stamps or collections and receive alerts when items of interest become available.
- If two users browse similar stamps, the system recommends one user's history to another.

ANALYSIS OF THE FEASIBILITY:

- Postage of the stamps takes only standard fee and guarantees secure and timely delivery throughout India
- Auctions are often conducted for the collection of rare stamps.
- The website has a chatbot that offers 24/7 customer support, so help is available at any time.

VIABILITY

- The website act as a key resource for philatelic community by addressing various information of stamps including description and it's historic value.
- When a user buys a product, they can view the product details, interact with the seller, and proceeds to buy. There is also an option for cancellation.
